

Telling Their Stories: Graphic Organizer

Jamie H. Eves, "'Faithfully to Serve': Jesse & Job Leason, African American Soldiers in the Revolutionary War."

<https://millmuseum.org/job-jesse-leason/>

Directions: As you read, "'Faithfully to Serve': Jesse & Job Leason, African American Soldiers in the Revolutionary War," complete the graphic organizer below. Your task is to identify the information Jamie Eves found about the Leason brothers, explain how he found that information, and explain the conclusions he was able to draw about the Leason's lives as a result of that information. Then, answer the final question at the end of the document.

What information was learned about Jesse & Job Leason?	Describe the process Jamie Eves used to discover this information.	What conclusions did Jamie Eves make about Jesse & Job Leason based on this information?

--	--	--

Final Question: What difficulties did Jamie Eves encounter while researching the Leason brothers? What questions are still unanswered about their lives?