GUIDELINES

Sponsorships support public humanities events, programs, and opportunities that help institutions serving the people of Connecticut explore and promote the enduring value of public humanities in our lives and civil society. CTH Sponsorships are intended to fund activities that align with CTH's mission and strategic goals and objectives, with a goal of providing visibility and access to strategic audiences that are not currently being served by CTH through its normal grantmaking and other initiatives. CTH will provide funding up to $2,000 for an organization's event in return for marketing visibility and exposure.<sup>1</sup>

Sponsorships can support a variety of formats including events, scholarships, or awards. Regardless of project type, eligibility for consideration requires:

- Applicant be a 501(c)3 nonprofit, municipal, or Connecticut-recognized tribal nation organization
- Program to be sponsored is open and accessible to the general public
- Program serves Connecticut audiences and/or organizations

Before applying, organizations must contact CTH Grants staff at grant@cthumanities.org to discuss your sponsorship idea. Applications submitted without prior communication with CTH staff will not be considered.

Organizations may have only one (1) Sponsorship at a time. CTH must approve a final report on the first sponsorship prior to receiving a second award.

1.1 FUNDING PRIORITIES

Connecticut Humanities (CTH) gives priority to Sponsorship requests that:

- Support events/programs with a large number of attendees or viewership
- Support activities that are free or low cost to attend
- Provide equitable access to the humanities or professional development opportunities for humanities-serving institutions
- Support underserved areas of the humanities (i.e., geographic, demographic, humanities disciplines)
- Support activities that meet CTH priorities, but whose structure and scholarship are not fitted for CTH's traditional granting program (e.g., Quick Grants and Implementation Grants)
- Support organizations not recently funded by CTH grants
