CT Humanities offers a wide variety of grant lines to support strong humanities projects and the institutions that offer them. See the chart below to learn more about what grant line is the best fit for your organization's needs.

Which grant line is right for your project?

Grant Line	Sample Types of Projects	Award Size	Project Duration	Matching Requirements	Application Deadlines	Earliest Start Date for Project
Quick Grants	• Exhibitions • Discussion-based public programs • Local history tours • Community reading projects	$250-$4,999	12 months	Minimum 1:1 match (can be any combination of external, grantee cash, or in-kind contributions)	October 1, January 5, April 1, June 1	Month after deadline
Planning Grants	• Planning for exhibitions • Planning for public programs • Planning for interpretive digital media projects	$5,000-$25,000	18 months	Minimum 1:1 match (can be any combination of external, grantee cash, or in-kind contributions)	December 1, May 1	February 1 / July 1
Implementation Grants	• Exhibitions • Public programs • Interpretive digital media projects	$5,000-$35,000	24 months	• Minimum 1:1 match • 25% of minimum required match must be from external funds for requests under $25,000 • 50% of minimum required match must be from external funds for requests between $25,000-$35,000	December 1, May 1	February 1 / July 1

Capacity Grants	• Strategic planning • Audience assessments • Technology assessments and planning • Other types of consultant-led assessments and plans	$1,500-$9,999	12 months	Minimum 1:1 match (can be any combination of external, grantee cash, or in-kind contributions)	December 1, May 1	February 1 / July 1