GUIDELINES

Connecticut Humanities Fund (CTHF) Public Presentation Grants support projects that help us understand and appreciate human history, culture, values, and beliefs. They allow us to analyze our complex society and to make thoughtful, reasoned decisions based on inquiry, evaluation, and empathy.

The Public Presentation grant lines support projects from planning through implementation and the flexible funding range allows organizations to develop projects of all sizes. There are separate application forms and requirements for Planning Grants and Implementation Grants.

Planning Grants may be awarded to develop exhibitions, public programs, interpretive digital media projects, and curriculum development.

All Planning Grant proposals must demonstrate significant humanities scholarship and content and articulate clearly defined goals that will be achieved during the project.

Only one (1) Public Presentation Planning or Implementation Grant can be open at a time. Applicants may only apply for one (1) Public Presentation Planning or Implementation Grant at any application deadline.

1.1 FUNDING PRIORITIES

Connecticut Humanities (CTH) gives priority to projects that include significant humanities scholarship and content; explore topics and stories in an inclusive, diverse, and equitable manner; commemorate the 250th anniversary of the formation of the United States consistent with the America 250 | CT Commission's guiding themes; and do one or more of the following:

- Engage individuals and communities in the exploration of contemporary issues.
- Advance creativity and demonstrate ingenuity and innovation.
- Present accessible content that provokes, challenges, educates, and inspires.
- Ensure access to the project's content and scholarship beyond the length of the grant.
- Foster collaboration among organizations, groups, and communities.

Projects that help the public better understand and contextualize community issues or current events, relate the past to the present, and/or are Connecticut focused are especially encouraged.

If your project involves or interprets Indigenous history or cultures, please also note CT Humanities' Indigenous Values Statement.

1.2 WHO CAN APPLY

- The applicant organization's current year operating budget and previous year operating budget

Applications for planning interpretive digital projects must also include:

- The process you will use to select technology (include proposals from vendors detailing the scope and duration of work);
- Technologies to be used (if already selected) and justification for selection. If you plan to use proprietary technologies, give justification for choosing them over open-source options;
- Existing database or archival resources from which content will be drawn (sample entries may be provided).

Please note that applications may include pertinent audio and video digital files in standard formats. Contact Connecticut Humanities staff for details.

1.8 APPLICATION DEADLINE SCHEDULE

Planning Grant applications are accepted twice a year and are due to CTH by 11:59pm on December 1, 2025 and May 1, 2026. Award notifications for applications received by the December deadline are made by the first business day of February, and award notifications applications received by the May deadline are made by the first business day of July.

1.9 HOW TO APPLY

Applications must be submitted using Connecticut Humanities' online grant portal.

Before applying, organizations must contact CTH Grants staff (grants@cthumanities.org) to discuss your project idea. If you would like a draft review, you must save your draft in the CTH Grant Portal and email staff at grants@cthumanities.org requesting a draft review no later than two weeks before the application deadline.

Please note the following application errors that will cause an application not to be considered by the review committee:

- Applications submitted without prior communication with CTH staff about this specific application
- Applications submitted from an ineligible organization (see Section 1.2)
- Applications submitted without having submitted the final report for an existing open Planning or Implementation Grant by the application deadline
- Applications for projects unrelated to the humanities
- Incomplete applications
- Applications that do not use the required CTH Universal Budget Form (linked within the application)
- Applications with project budgets where 25% or less of the CTH funding requested is for Eligible Expenses (see Section 1.3). Please note that grants awarded containing items on the Funding Exclusions list will have those items and amount requested removed from their award amount (see Section 1.6)
- Applications with project budgets containing 25% or less of the requisite matching fund requirements (see Section 1.4). Please note that grants awarded containing insufficient matching funds will have their award reduced accordingly
- Applications that are submitted after the application deadline or are left in draft mode but not submitted by the application deadline

No edits may be made to an application once the grant deadline has passed. Please review your application carefully before submitting it.

If an applicant experiences technical difficulties when submitting their application, the applicant must reach out to CTH Grants Staff either by phone or email (grants@cthumanities.org) within 12 hours of the grant deadline to alert CTH of the technical difficulties. Incomplete applications where the applicant organization did not contact Grants Staff within 12 hours of the grant deadline will not be considered.
